

Recreation Committee Meeting Minutes

March 21, 2019

In attendance: Brandy Goulet, Heather McElroy, Maggie Machinist, Emma Gunn, and Doug Niles

Meeting was called to order. No updates to the agenda. The sole topic of the meeting was preparation for Maple Fool's Fest. Members of the committee gave an update as to what they have done and what they need to do in preparation for the event on the 30th.

Pancake Breakfast- Maggie stated that she will contact Melinda to confirm that they have everything that they need.

5k Fun Run- Heather will be printing arrows and signs. Maggie confirmed with Jeff N. that there will be police presence in town that morning for the race. Doug will secure a second trash barrel for the course.

Volunteers for registration and on course volunteers have signed up to help.

Craft/Vendor Fair- Vendor tables are sold out. We were forced to turn away multiple vendors due to lack of space. Maggie needs nothing at this time.

Kid's Activities- Doug taking care of the activities, details about face painting and cotton candy still being finalized.

Dodgeball- Doug needs nothing for this event.

Baking Competition- Brandy is handling the acquisition of judges for this event

Bake Sale- Doug will get change ($1s and quarters) for the event.

Photo and Art Competition- Maggie handling judges. Doug will contact the school to arrange pick-up of art/photo entries.

Maple Feats of Strength- Doug has the maple barrels and will bring them to the event. Doug will contact Northwoods about their tug-o-war rope, and he will contact the fire department about filling bins for the "sap" gathering competition.

Wine Tasting- Mike Straight will be handling this.

Raffle and Award Ceremony- Ladies have been selling lots of tickets! Doug will put together more books of raffle tickets.

Cornhole Tournament- Doug does not need anything for this event except prizes. Doug will ask the Legion about advertising the Vendor Fair and Cornhole Tourney on their sign.

Odds and ends- Doug took a list of all of the sponsors that we need to collect from and he will work on collection. He will also pick up the Community National Bank banner.

Emma will be working on social media advertising. Doug has contacted radio stations about free advertising.

The group will be getting together on Thursday March 28th to assemble gift baskets, finalize plans, and prepare the Welcome Center.

Meeting adjourned.
